The catastrophe Wednesday night was the most severe in this section since the War. Houses were rocked, furniture uprooted, and windows broken.

Mr. A. D. Burt was elected City Collector, W. L. Gardner, tax assessor, R. E. Miller, re-elected clerk, and P. Fortune, treasurer, by the Council, Monday night. A good selection of names.

All kinds of help. We will not be unprepared.

J. AMBERG'S BROS.

The energy and business worth of men is to be seen in the way they are working for the building administration of our members who were buried under the late storm. The public will help men who help themselves.

The defrauded Tennessee Treasurer after being captured and released from his prison in the poundage office, has been released by a Mayor and his Councilmen for the year.

The post office has been discontinued. All offices are holding him for the Tennessee authorities. Any way he is in a dead lock.

A man named Wilmett, was arrested at Union City, Laurel, charged with robbing the poundage office, and was held without bail. He was brought to the place some weeks since, and the Wilmett, is believed to be connected with the gang. The officers had to hurry their prisoners to the county jail to prevent the free Judge Lynn.

Books and Books.

THE AMBERG'S BROS.

Business License Tax Court.—Mr. Jacob Hofferth, a district attorney, whose state of Illinois, will commence a series of temporary meetings at the Baptist church, in Hickman, to-night. Mr. Hofferth, recently known as "Frisco Jim," is a well known and popular lawyer, and will be present to answer all questions.

Maple Syrup.

By the barrel, half barrel, and smaller quantities. Also Fresh Eggs and Ham, etc.

Jane Rose.

The Literary Society, which was suspended during the holidays, will meet to-night at 7:30 o'clock, all the members are invited to present, to be present at the meeting, and to receive a vote of thanks for the amount raised. The exercises will be wholly entertainment. Meers, Miller and Talleferre will perform some sketches, and will be followed, and there will be a new quantity, by male voices. Don't fail to come.

This year the Literary Society, will be organized again, and will be open to all persons, but, in the fact that without an exception, those in the best districts are anxious to resume business right here, the houses will be occupied as rapidly as they can be rebuilt.

Homer Horace Ross, for skills and debility, etc.

J. W. ROGER.

OUR PATRONS.

We have to thank here our patrons, who have been so kind to the Council, to settle their accounts between us and the State of February 1st. It will considerably assist us in getting out of debt, especially as we are in a critical position, and we are now fairly secured.

Yours Respectfully,

HICKMAN, KY.

To Friends and Customers.

I beg leave to inform you that I am ready to supply you with all kinds of meat and well selected line of Parsons, and well known line of Parsons, in the market, consisting of the best quality of Hock, Hams, Bacon, Pork, Butter, Peas, Potato, Parlor Mirror, Roasting Meat, Bacon, and all kinds of cold meat, especially as I am a regular subscriber to the news papers, and I hope to be able to compete with any other house in the quality of goods and prices. Will also want that you will let me know the price of the pork sections, and the price of the ham, as it appears that prices are no longer the same as the last time I sent you my bill. I hope to manage during the past, I hope and expect to receive the same as I have done. I remain your truly an admirer. —T. O. COOPER.

Mrs. McMurran is heading a movement to build a new two story brick play hall, with two handsome houses above, and the whole to be used for the education of the children of the town. Her leading citizens have volunteered to take a large part of the stock, and the remaining stock will be easily placed. It is to be hoped that the results will prove better than the end of the term, if she should lack anything of paying for herself, the money will be used to help the poor, and to help the building of the hall.

YOUNGER—GARDNER.—On the 11th Mr. James A. Younce to Miss Sophie Root.

JOHNSON—GARDNER.—At St. Paul's church, Hickman, Ky., Wednesday evening, Dec. 10th, 1883, by Rev. Mr. Miller, Mrs. W. C. Justice and Mr. Frank Johnson.

The Episcopal church, which had been beautifully decorated for the occasion, was surrounded with the friends and acquaintances of the bridegroom and the beautiful wife, and the young couple were presented by Rev. Mr. Pinder, of the Hickman Episcopal church. The groom is the son of this country, and though he is young, he is a graduate of the University, and has been most responsible and popular, and stands without a blemish, and the bride, a sister of the deceased, had long been a favorite of Hickman people, and is known to be one of the prettiest and most winsome young ladies in the county.
